Financial Reports were presented for NC PBL and the NC PBL Professional Division.

The initial dues reporting deadline to count for FLDC awards and Gold Star Chapter recognition is October 12, 2009. That same date is the deadline for Chapter Challenge entries to be received by the Foundation treasurer.

The NC PBL Foundation, Inc. is sponsoring two fundraisers "Beat the Board" and "Adopt A Student." Scholarship guidelines have been changed.

North Carolina competitors won 44 awards at the 2009 National Leadership Conference in Anaheim, California.

The Kick-Offs will be September 24, 2009, at Mt. Olive College, Rowan-Cabarrus Community College, and Asheville-Buncombe Technical Community College. The Fall Leadership Development Conference (FLDC) will be October 23-24, 2009, at the Clarion Hotel in Greensboro, North Carolina. There will be four tracks included at FLDC.

The NC PBL Handbook has been reviewed by the State Committee and will be posted on the website by the Kick-Offs. The NC PBL Foundation, Inc. "Adopt A Student" fundraiser countdown has been posted on the NC PBL website. The deadline for State Officer and Chapter articles for the State newsletter will be October 2, 2009. The NC PBL newsletter will be online October 16, 2009. The State Officer team was encouraged to promote State activities on Facebook.

Mr. Hazlett encouraged chapters to attend their choice of a location for the National Fall Leadership Conference.

Andrea Alston, NC PBL Secretary
